TRANCE DEFEATED BY FITZ HERBERT AT 5 TO

BY VINCENT TREANOR. (Special to The Evening World.)

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, April 27.-Fitz Herbert, the champion place horse of the meeting to date, finally won a race to-day in the Woodhaven Stakes, and in doing so caused the biggest of form upsets. Trance was an odds-on favorite, and she was conceded a cinch. Hadn't she breezed home in record time in her last two races, making her fields look cheap and ordinary? Why, any old price was considered like stealing money from the poor bookies.

Well, Trance was beaten and beaten, get up, and at the end Notter and Big soundly. Fitz Herbert simply breezed Chief were going away.
